Abstract

Write a concise abstract of approximately 150–250 words. The abstract should briefly describe the background, purpose/objective, methodology, key findings, and conclusion of the study. Avoid citations, tables, and figures in the abstract.

Keywords: Keyword 1; Keyword 2; Keyword 3; Keyword 4; Keyword 5.

1. Introduction

Introduce the research topic and provide the necessary background and context. Clearly describe the research problem, motivation, objectives, and significance of the study. The introduction should establish the need for the research and briefly indicate the structure of the paper. All sources should be cited according to APA Style, 7th Edition.

2. Methodology

Describe the research methodology in sufficient detail to allow the study to be understood and, where appropriate, replicated. This section may include the research design, data collection methods, dataset/sample, experimental setup, tools, techniques, algorithms, or statistical methods used.

2.1 Subheading

Provide relevant details under the subsection. Subheadings should be 12 pt, Italic, Times New Roman.

2.2 Subheading

Continue the description of the methodology or other relevant content.

(Subheadings should not be more than three.)

3. Results and Discussion

Present the findings of the study clearly and systematically. Tables and figures may be used to present important results.

Table 1

Title/Caption of the Table (In center)

Parameter	Result 1	Result 2	Result 3
------------------	-----------------	-----------------	-----------------

Parameter 1	XX	XX	XX
-------------	----	----	----

Parameter	Result 1	Result 2	Result 3
Parameter 2	XX	XX	XX
Parameter 3	XX	XX	XX

Discuss the results and explain their significance. Compare the findings with previous studies where appropriate.

4. Conclusions

Summarize the major findings and contributions of the study. Clearly state the conclusions drawn from the research. Mention important implications and, where appropriate, limitations and possible directions for future research.

5. Acknowledgements (Optional)

The authors would like to acknowledge [institution/person/funding agency] for their support and assistance in carrying out this research.

References

References should be formatted according to APA Style, 7th Edition. Use a consistent reference style throughout the paper.

Author, A. A. (Year). Title of the article. Title of Journal, Volume (Issue), xx–xx. <https://doi.org/xxxxx>
